“All About Us” is organised every year under Hong Kong Arts Centre’s flagship programme ifva. Instructors for the project comprise film industry professionals and video artists. Through fun challenges during two exciting camps and weeks of filming activities, participants learn from doing – write screenplays, scout locations, sketch storyboard, try their hand at jobs on a film set, edit video and sound, and discover how to tell their own story through moving images.

CREATIVE FILM MAKING PROJECT FOR ETHNIC MINORITIES YOUTH 2013/14

ALL ABOUT US

All About Us 2013/14 is in its fourth year, the scheme has witnessed the birth of many increasingly mature works. Action remains the favourite genre for participants in “All About Us”. They also explored gender equality by questioning why girls cannot play soccer. Romantic stories, light-hearted tales, superman fantasies are all in these short films that reflect what ethnic minorities in Hong Kong see and think. Interviews with participants will also be screened to give you a more comprehensive view of the scheme. Welcome to All About Us 2013/14 public screening!
